PROVIDING HELP.
 CREATING HOPE.
 SERVING ALL.

PROVIDING HELP. Catholic Charities, Diocese of Venice, Inc. is a non-profit social service agency that helps about 40,000 people annually in 10 counties of Southwest Florida. Catholic Charities offers people an opportunity to achieve self-sufficiency with a wide range of assistance.

Prevention and Social Services

Catholic Charities strives to equip families, individuals and seniors with vital essentials through programs and services that meet the most urgent needs such as emergency financial assistance, food pantries and programs, soup kitchen, clothing banks, prescription medications, senior outreach and support, compassionate care for HIV/AIDS patients, case management, and disaster response.

Counseling and Education

Catholic Charities works to build up families, individuals and seniors by enhancing their lives with relief from mental health issues through professional counseling and addiction services and opportunities to better themselves by way of after-school tutoring and reading programs, youth mentoring, summer camps, life and job skills, English classes, housing counseling and foreclosure prevention, home ownership classes, and enriching child care and early learning centers.

Family Reunification Services

Catholic Charities welcomes immigrants and refugees and secures a healthy life for desperate families in their pursuit to attain self-sufficiency with immigration services from Board of Immigration Appeals certified counselors, citizenship classes, refugee resettlement services, an empowerment program, a homeless shelter for families and children, human trafficking victims assistance, support for veterans, and housing and education for mothers and their children.

CREATING HOPE. The Catholic Charities Foundation was established to build a permanent fund to provide uninterrupted programs and services to those in need in Southwest Florida. Gifts to the foundation are invested wisely so that year after year vulnerable families and individuals and seniors can continue to receive assistance that sustain, stabilize and strengthen them.

Gifts given to the Catholic Charities Foundation are invested and the growth and interest income from that investment is provided annually for Catholic Charities programs and services.
